THE DEADLY PISTOL.

Monroe Dean Killed by William Bradley.

A difficulty occurred on the corner of Wilkinson and Clinton streets Sunday evening about 7:30 o'clock between Monroe Dean—better known as "Boley" Dean—and William Bradley, which resulted in the almost instant death of the former. It seems that a party of young men were standing near Mr. P. A. Fuhs' grocery, Bradley among them, when Dean, who was under the influence of liquor, came along and trod upon Bradley's foot. Bradley asked him not to step on his foot when Dean said he would "cut his d—n feet off," or something like it, and started toward Bradley, who walked away from him. Dean followed him up, when Bradley warned him once or twice not to come any nearer, but as Dean continued to advance upon him Bradley drew his pistol and fired, the ball striking Dean in the heart and killing him instantly. Bradley went immediately to the jail, surrendered to Jailer Williams and was locked up. The case was laid before the grand jury on Monday, and that body returned an indictment Wednesday morning charging Bradley with manslaughter. His bond was fixed at $1,000 by Judge Cantrill, which he gave and was released from jail. The case was called Thursday morning and postponed until next term.

Bradley, who is only seventeen years of age, is a son of Mr. John Bradley, foreman at the Kentucky River Hemp Mill, and a quiet young man, who had made his arrangements to go East on Thursday to learn a trade, which the unfortunate affair will prevent his doing.

Dean, the man who was killed, had the reputation of being a quiet, orderly citizen when not intoxicated, but inclined to be quarrelsome when under the influence of liquor.

Interstate Commerce Commission.

Three members of the Interstate Commerce Commission, viz: Hon. W. R. Morrison, of Illinois; W. G. Veazy, of Vermont, and Hon. J. C. Clements, of Georgia, met in this city Tuesday as a court to hear the cases of Messrs. Miles & Son and the railroad Commissioners against the L. & N. and C. & O. Railroads and the Chamber of Commerce of Cincinnati against the L. & N. Railroad. Messrs. Miles & Son were represented by Messrs. Knott & Edelen and the Railroad Commissioners by Attorney General Hendrick, while Judge Ed. Baxter, of Nashville, and H. H. Jackson, Esq., of Cincinnati, looked after the interests of the railroads. The evidence in the Miles case was heard and the attorneys given sixty days in which to prepare and file briefs. The Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce case was transferred to Louisville and the Commission adjourned to meet in that city on Wednesday.

The County Levy.

The Court of Claims met on Monday and fixed the county levy as follows: For general purposes 40 cents on the hundred dollars, railroad tax sixteen and two third cents, tithes one dollar and a half.

Squire William Smoot, one of the magistrates from the Bald Knob district having resigned, Mr. John Harrod, who has been nominated as a candidate for the position at the November election, was appointed by County Judge Williams to fill the vacancy, qualified and took his seat as a member of the court.

Grasp the Opportunity.

Our enterprising druggist, P. H. Carpenter, cordially invites you to try a 25c. bottle of Dr. Hale's Household Cough Cure. This new remedy acts quickly on the bronchial tubes, throat and lungs, lessens the desire to cough and heals mucous membrane. If consumption it will cure you. Pleasant to take. The children like it.

To The Base Ball Park.

The Capital Railway Company have secured from Mr. Jas. A. Murray the right of way through his place and will extend their line out to Thorn Hill Ball Park, a distance of about three thousand feet. The road will leave the main line in Mr. Murray's field, run along the north side of the orchard, and thence up the hill to the ball grounds. The work of construction will begin as soon as the rails arrive and be pushed to an early completion.

Cut Loose.

About two hundred saw-logs belonging to Mr. Abe Gum, which were tied up to the bank in Bellepoint, were turned loose Saturday night and allowed to float off down the river. It was evidently the work of some scoundrel who wished to catch them below and claim salvage on them.

The Evolution

Of medicinal agents of gradually relegating the old time herbs, pills, draughts and vegetable extracts to the rear and bringing into general use the pleasant and effective liquid laxative, Syrup of Figs. To get the true remedy see that it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only. For sale by all leading druggists.

CEGAR POSTS—Anyone wishing a supply of red cedar posts will do well by calling on John C. Quire, near Old Crow Distillery, Woodford county. 31-1m*

Col. Berry's Response.

The following letter from Hon. Albert S. Berry has been received in response to the one written him by Mr. W. H. Murray last week in regard to securing an increased appropriation for the improvement of the Kentucky river:

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 13, '94.
Mr. Wm. H. Murray,

DEAR SIR:—Your letter received. I will, as I have always done, make the best fight possible for the fair recognition of the Kentucky river. The amendment will be presented and urged upon the House. I wish you would send me the several pamphlets heretofore published, and any suggestions you may be able to make upon the bill which I send you to-day. I would like to have Judge Hord's suggestion in behalf of the river.

Yours Truly,
A. S. BERRY.

A True Friend.

"A friend in need is a friend indeed." Every family should be prepared to treat scalds, burns, bruises, wounds, cuts, etc., by keeping a box of Dr. Hale's Household Ointment handy. No other remedy gives such quick relief or exerts so soothing and healing effect. For irritated eyelids, sore nostrils, chapped lips and hands, rough skin, boils, furuncles, etc., nothing equals it. Price 25c. and 50c. at P. H. Carpenter's drug store.

Announcement.

No apology is necessary on the score of medical propriety for thus announcing to the profession and the public, that we have made a long, careful and special study of cancerous diseases, together with all malignant and other tumors, and are able to offer the results of our extensive experience in Kentucky and surrounding countries in a system of rational and successful treatment, that we believe has never heretofore been attained, and we are able to point to thousands of successful cases—not in a boasting, but rather in a spirit of thankfulness, that we are thus able to prove so clearly our assertion; that our system does cure cancer. With a positive knowledge of this fact now so fully endorsed by thousands of sufferers, and approved by the profession, we should be wanting in humanity if we neglected any means in our power to spread the glad tidings among those afflicted with this most terrible and hopeless of diseases.

We have printed a pamphlet giving the symptoms, cause, varieties, &c., of cancers and tumors. Anyone feeling interesting can get a copy free by addressing,

Deafness Can't Be Cured.

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When the tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness caused by catarrh that we cannot cure by taking Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Fail to do Their Duty.

Everybody has at times failed to do their duty towards themselves. Hundreds of lady readers suffer from sick headache, nervousness, sleeplessness and female troubles. Let them follow the example of Mrs. H. Herbrechter, Stevens Point, Wis., who for five years suffered greatly from nervous prostration and sleeplessness, tried physicians and different medicines without success. But one bottle of Dr. Miles' Nervine caused sound sleep every night and she is feeling like a new person. Mrs. Elizabeth Wheeler, Saramie City, Wyoming, who tried all other remedies, declares that after three weeks' use of the Nervine for headache, nervous prostration, etc., she was entirely relieved. Sold by J. W. Gayle. Trial bottle free.

As a Meeting Point.

The following State meetings will be held in this city this year:

The State League of Republican Clubs in May.

The Press Association in June.

The Normal Teachers Association in June.

The Synod of Kentucky and the Presbytery of Ebenezzer in October.

How Much Rain Will Fall?

The weekly Courier-Journal has struck a popular note in its weather guessing contests. A wonderful amount of interest was taken in its offer of $1,000 for the closest guesses to the coldest day and temperature during February, at Louisville, and much valuable information was gathered by subscribers on the subject. This contest has just been decided, there being twenty-eight lucky guessers. The Weekly Courier-Journal now makes another offer on the same line. For the closest guesses to the amount of rain that will fall at Louisville during the month of May, the Weekly Courier-Journal will give $1,000. This money will be divided into nineteen presents—one of $500, two of $100 each, two of $50 each, four of $25 each, and ten of $10 each. Each guess must be accompanied by $1, to pay for one year's subscription to the Weekly Courier-Journal, the best Democratic paper published. The rainfall is scientifically measured, to the hundredth part of an inch. The heaviest rain-fall in May during the past twenty years was seven inches and forty-six hundredths of an inch. The lightest was one inch even. The measurements are made by the Government officials of the Weather Bureau at Louisville. Sample copies of the paper, with full particulars of the contest, will be sent free to any address. Write at once, as under no circumstances will any guesses be received after April 30th. Address Weekly Courier-Journal, Louisville, Ky.

BEAUTIFUL BRIDES.
Wedding of Mr. S. French Hoge and Miss Mary Fulton Wright.

The Hale-Ridgway Nuptials.

We are indebted to Mr. W. M. Kavanaugh, formerly of this city, but now business manager of the Little Rock Gazette, for a copy of his paper containing the following account of the wedding of Mr. S. French Hoge and Miss Mary Wright in that city, on Wednesday of last week. Although he kindly sent the paper by special delivery it reached us a little late for publication in our last issue.

For weeks past Little Rock society has been in a flutter of excitement over the prospective marriage of one of its favorites, Miss Mary Fulton Wright, one of last season's debutantes and Mr. S. French Hoge, of Kentucky. The fact that society weddings have been few, and that the bride was beloved and popular beyond the hope of most young ladies, was beautiful as well, and that the groom was a comparative stranger in the city of Little Rock, added unusual interest to the coming event. Long before the cards were out it was the chief topic of social gossip, and the friends of the bride prospective felt drawn more closely to her in ties of friendship since she was to be taken away from them and become a resident of a foreign city. Invitations for the event were issued about two weeks ago.

Still greater interest centered in the event when the parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Hoge, Gen. Fayette Hewitt and Mr. G. B. Harper, a distinguished family of Frankfort, Ky., were announced to have arrived in a private car, to be present at the ceremony, which was announced for last night at Christ Church. Long before the hour fixed for the ceremony Christ Church was crowded to its utmost capacity with invited guests.

The gallery was crowded, the choir was filled with people and chairs had been placed in the aisles to accommodate the guests, leaving only room in the center aisle for the entry of the bride party. A boundary of white ribbon enclosed a space set aside for the family and immediate friends and relatives, over 100 in number, who alone were invited by personal invitation, no cards, to the house reception. The altar was also decorated with a wealth of palms and potted plants.

It was 8:30 o'clock before the entrance doors were thrown open wide and Mr. R. Jefferson Hall at the organ announced the opening chords of "Longing," and the bride party entered.

The buzzing hum of voices ceased and all eyes turned toward the door. The party advanced to the altar in the following order: Messrs. F. Loughborough and Eugene Polk, Claude Thompson and J. E. England, Mr. D. F. S. Galloway and Ed. Winfield, Morehead Wright (the bride's brother) and D. H. Cantrell; Misses Annie Cockrell and Eva Hoge, of Frankfort, Ky.; the groom's sister, Carrie Hempstead, and Alice Johnson, Lucy Gantt and Annie Watkins, Leah Thompson and Maud Sevier, of New Lewisville, Ark.; and Miss Caroline Peay, the maid of honor, and the bride, leaning on the arm of her father, Capt. W. Wright.

As the bridesmaids stationed themselves in a broken semi-circle about the altar and the groomsmen in a similar circle just below, the groom, Mr. Stephen French Hoge, of Frankfort, Ky., preceded by the best man, Mr. Robert Irvine Mason, of Frankfort, Ky., preceded by the best man, Rev. Wm. C. Carnahan, advanced to meet them.

It was a beautiful yet impressive group. The organ hushed its inspired strains, and in a clear, earnest voice the rector spoke the solemn words, and vow was given for vow which made the young couple man and wife. The ceremony was brief, although the ring was used. The maid of honor unfurnished the bridal veil which had heretofore concealed the features of the bride, and drew it over her head.

Every eye was set upon the picture of loveliness disclosed, rosette with blushes, a happy smile in her magnificent eyes. She took her husband's arm, led the way from the altar kissing her hand to Mrs. Thos. Lafferty in the audience as she passed her, slightly bowing and smiling recognition to friends as she passed them. The party followed her in the following order: Mr. R. I. Mason and Miss Caroline Peay, Mr. D. H. Cantrell and Miss Leah Thompson, Mr. Morehead Wright and Miss Maud Sevier, Mr. Ed. Winfield and Miss Lucy Gantt, Mr. D. F. S. Galloway and Miss Annie Watkins, Mr. J. E. England and Miss Carrie Hempstead, Mr. Claude Thompson and Miss Alice Johnson, Mr. Eugene Polk and Miss Annie Cockrell, Mr. F. Loughborough and Miss Eva Hoge. Before the last strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March had died away the bridal party were being driven to the residence of the bride's parents on West Markham street, where a reception, at which only the immediate friends and relatives were present, was held, the wedding cake cut, and after happy congratulations with loving regrets, the happy couple were bid adieu and took the train for Frankfort, Ky.

The bride was radiantly beautiful in a rich gown of dechese satin en traine, trimmed with St. Galle lace, diamond and pearl ornaments, the gift of the groom. Her veil was pinned to her wealth of dark hair with a diamond brooch. She carried in her hand a bouquet of lilies of the valley.

The maid of honor and bridesmaids were a group of Little Rock's fairest society belles, and were attired in gowns of white organdie, trimmed with St. Galle lace, and carried a bouquet of pink roses, and the bridesmaids bouquets of Easter lilies.

The presents displayed at the house were numerous and elegant, many of them being costly, while numerous tokens of remembrance, esteemed as dear as gold and silver, were sent in from her host of friends.

Those from the groom's Kentucky friends showed the high esteem in which he must be held at home. Little remains to be said of the bride that has not already been told.

The daughter of Capt. and Mrs. W. F. Wright, beloved of everyone who has had the good fortune to know her, endowed with rare personal beauty, a sincerity of nature and sweetness of disposition, a fortune for any young lady, her absence will make a permanent vacancy in the social circle, and her husband has won as rare a one as she.

The groom, Stephen French Hoge, is the son of Col. Chas. E. Hoge, of Frankfort, Ky. C. E. Hoge, is President of the Mason & Co. & Co., Cashier of the State National Bank at Frankfort, and connected with other enterprises. French Hoge is a young man of splendid business attainments, was auditor of the Kentucky Midland Railroad for several years, and at present is in charge of the work of digging the ship canal from Chicago to the Illinois river, for which his father's company has the contract. He is a graduate of the Virginia Military Institute, and is a model young man in every respect, having won many friends during his brief stay in the City of Roses.

The bride party accompanied by the parents of the groom, and the remainder of the Frankfort party left on the Frankfort, Lexington and Louisville train, and the bride's party followed in the Blue Grass State, the happy couple will go to Chicago, their future home.

A brilliant reception was given the young couple at "Ingleside," the country home of Col. C. E. Hoge, on Wednesday evening. The numerous guests invited from the city went out on a special train over the L. & N. railroad and by private conveyance. The elegant home was beautifully decorated with flowers, the grounds brilliantly illuminated and Saxton's Orchestra, from Lexington, furnished the music, while the supper was elegant. Mrs. Hoge was assisted in receiving her guests by Mrs. S. French Hoge, Mrs. P. B. Hoge, of Baltimore; Mrs. G. T. Blackley, Misses Evelyn Hoge, Frankfort; Mary Emma Bright, Winchester; Ruth Mason, Dora McPherson, Lewisburg, Va.; Miss Emma Hoge and Miss Mary Echols.

Last evening they were entertained by Mr. G. T. Blackley and wife, at their home on Ann street.

THE HALE-RIDGWAY NUPTIALS.

The following account of the marriage of Mr. Nat. Hale, son of State Treasurer H. S. Hale, and Miss Ruby Ridgway is taken from the Mayfield Mirror, of April 13th:

At the Methodist Church Wednesday night in the midst of flowers, ferns and friends Mr. Nat. A. Hale and Miss Ruby Ridgway were bound together for life at Hymen's throne by the silken cord of love.

The church, with the seating capacity of about eight hundred, was packed and a standing room was at a premium. Friends by the score were compelled to return to their homes by reason of being unable to enter. Never in the history of our little city have the eyes of the people feasted upon such a brilliant scene in marriage circles within her walls. The church was beautifully decorated with evergreens and cut flowers; and beneath a snowy white umbrella they were pronounced man and wife by Rev. O. P. Speigel, of the First Christian Church. The lady attendants dressed in white Paris muslin gowns and Gainsboro hats trimmed with pink roses and moire crepe, carrying a bunch of pink roses; the maid of honor in a rich broad silk and the bride in a beautiful cream satin en train with bridal-veil and white shoes—exceedingly beautiful.

The groom's best man, gentlemen attendants and ushers, wore conventional full dress suits, appeared doubly handsome by the reflected beauty of the fair ones. The flower girls delighted all as they tripped along and opened the gates of the floral arch for the entry of the party to the altar. The party was greeted by a charming bridal chorus rendered by the voices of Mesdames J. T. Myles, S. Hale, Misses Margaret Reed and May Wilford and Mr. J. D. Watson and the cornets of Messrs. E. A. Johnson and C. R. Boone.

Miss Mary Hale, of Frankfort, sister of the groom, was the maid of honor, and the groom's best man was Mr. J. N. Beadles, Jr., of Hickman; the other attendants were Miss Emma Green and E. O. Wilford, Miss Hattie Albritton and W. T. Landrum, Miss Gussie Youngs and J. L. Stuntson, Miss Cameron Boone and A. S. Anderson, Miss Bessie Wilford and W. Lindsey Hale, Miss Malona Farthing and H. J. Wright; and the ushers were Messrs. G. E. Budke, John Ligon, W. B. Bolinger and W. L. Austin, the flower children: Johnnie Bell Kesterson, Elmer Simpson, Mabel Norman and Nicholas Beadles.

After the ceremony the couple left for Frankfort on the 10:21 train where they will spend a few days with the parents of the groom, after which they will return to Mayfield and take rooms at Mrs. Young's.

The young couple were handsomely entertained Tuesday evening by the groom's parents, at their home on Second street, on which occasion the hostess was assisted in receiving the guests by her daughters, Misses Annie and Mary Hale, Mesdames Caswell Bennett, Thos. G. Poore, J. G.

THE HIGHEST AWARD.

Dr. Price's Baking Powder Receives It.

(Chicago Tribune.)

For leavening powder, keeping qualities, purity and general excellence the World's Fair jury decided that Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder had no equal. On each of its claims it was awarded a first prize or a diploma. All the baking powders entered for prizes were subject to a most exhaustive examination, and the jury was the best equipped to make the decision ever gotten together. Their verdict was supported by the testimony of Dr. H. W. Wiley, chief chemist of the United States Department of Agriculture at Washington. Dr. Wiley is an expert on food products and the highest authority on such matters in America. This verdict settles a long debated question as to which among the many baking powders is the best.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT

Entered at the post-office at Frankfort, Kentucky, as second-class matter.

GEO. A. LEWIS, Editor and Pub.

FRANKFORT, APRIL 21, 1894.

Circuit Court.

For the past two weeks the greater portion of the time of the court has been taken up with the trial of civil cases of minor importance.

The grand jury concluded its labors Wednesday, returning one hundred and six indictments and made its final report, stating that body had found the penitentiary, jail and workhouse all in good condition.

The case of the election officers at the Gas House precinct at the last November election, who were indicted at the last term of court, came up Wednesday on a demurrer to the indictment, which was argued, the demurrer overruled and the case postponed until the September term.

A demurrer was also filed to the indictment against the city, found at the last term on account of the bad condition of the workhouse, was also argued and overruled, the case being set for trial Thursday.

The case of Coyen, charged with setting fire to the blacksmith and wagon shop of A. J. Bartlett & Co., in which fire the late Chas. T. Egbert was so badly burned that he died from the effects, was taken up Thursday morning—an indictment having been found at this term—and the defendant was released on his own recognizance.

Knights Templar Election.

Frankfort Commandery, No. 4, Knights Templar, elected the following officers on Thursday evening to serve for the ensuing year: John Bradley, Eminent Commander.

V. L. Clark, Generalissimo. Guy Barrett, Captain General. Jacob Swigert, Prelate. Geo. W. Wilder, Senior Warden.

David Nicol, Junior Warden. V. A. Kaltenbrun, Treasurer. M. P. Gray, Recorder.

John T. Murphy, Standard Bearer. Henry Wilson, Sword Bearer. Geo. A. Lewis, Warden. Gus. Schaefer, Sentinel.

Burglarized.

The grocery of Messrs. Howard & McCoy, on St. Clair street, was entered on Sunday night by a thief, who broke open the back door and stole about six dollars from the cash drawer. This is the sixth time the store has been robbed and still there is no clue to the burglar.

Real Estate Transfers.

Mr. Noel Gaines has sold, through the real estate agency of Messrs. L. B. Marshall & Co., the office building on Main street occupied by him as a coal office, to Mrs. Virginia Duval.

Strawberry Festival.

The ladies of the First Presbyterian Church will give a strawberry festival in the parlors of the church in the near future, for the benefit of the church.

General Comment.

"Why Christianity has Failed in India" is the title of an article in The Forum by Virehand A. Gandhi, and it is worthy of study by all who are interested in religious problems. Max Muller says that the Hindoos are "better fitted for Christianity than any people who have accepted it," and the author of the article in question claims that Buddhism is a much further advance in the direction of truth as applied to ethical problems than is Christianity itself. Be this as it may, there are many scientists in this country and Europe who believe that Buddhism and Christianity, of all the religious of the world, are nearest the scientific truths of existence, and who attempt to prove that true Christianity, stripped of what they term its "mythology," and what is called "esoteric Buddhism" are one and the same. According to this Hindoo writer, no true Brahmin has ever been converted to Christianity in all the years since missions were started in India, while many Christians have been converted to Buddhism. Perhaps after all, the Jews were not the only people who knew Christ, and in attempting to convert the Hindoos we are trying to teach Christianity to a people who are better Christians than we are ourselves.

Leaving out of the question all the scientific disputes which have arisen regarding each religion, sect and schism, it does seem a very peculiar philosophy and rather a relic of barbarism than anything else, that we, who preach a religion of universal brotherhood, should so strongly claim that the truth has been revealed to us alone—that no other people—and in the days when Christianity was established the Jews and even the Roman Empire, were but a small part of the world—have had the fostering care of a loving God. That is "universal brotherhood" with a vengeance. And how dare we, looking at Christian countries, as they are now and as they were in the middle ages, say the lives of the other peoples of the world prove that they did not have the true religion? I firmly believe that when all is revealed to us we will see that God had his own way of making Himself known to all nations, and that our mission has been to develop and reform, rather than to originate, a belief which is present everywhere where man has risen above the condition of animism.

The ROUNDABOUT has received from Senator Voorhes, Chairman of the Senate Committee on Finance, a copy of the "Tariff and Administrative Customs Acts of 1890" and the "Bill H. R. 4864," or more popularly known as The McKinley and Wilson Tariff Bills, which are compared section by section, and thoroughly indexed. The pamphlet forms an interesting study, but it is hard for the average person to form any intelligent comparison of the two bills, for the reason that the duties in the McKinley act are mainly specific, that is as much by weight or quantity, while the Wilson bill is mostly constructed on the principle of so much per cent. ad valorem. One must be a walking encyclopedia on the market prices to tell how much per pound, ten, twenty or thirty per cent. ad valorem will be.

This difference between the two acts has caused much discussion pro and con in the newspapers and reviews. One side insists that the ad valorem plan has given scope for frauds wherever tried, and has had to be abandoned in every case for the specific system; and that it is a retrograde movement to adopt the latter; while on the other hand it is contended that the difference in grade or quality of the various products should be provided for by the valuation, and that cheap goods should not be compelled to pay the same specific duty as the more expensive ones. It is also held that any attempt in the body of a tariff act to distinguish between the qualities and levy greater or less specific duties by reason of such difference will make the act itself cumbersome and unwieldy. Both arguments have considerable base, but the general consensus of opinion, in all countries, being a more or less protective tariff system, is in favor of the specific plan.

The Evening Post, of Louisville, some time since made an offer to all its Kentucky readers to pay $5 each for ten short stories, to be selected from those submitted, by competent judges, and all of which must conform to certain conditions set out in the offer. Of all of those sent in but seven were deemed worthy of publication, and of these seven two were from Frankfort, being by Col. Thos. B. Ford and Maj. H. T. Stanton. Col. Ford's was a story of the escape to Cuba of Gen. Jno. C. Breckinridge, at the close of the war, and was published in Tuesday's paper. Maj. Stanton's has not yet appeared. In commenting on the failure of the contributors to send in the full number which conformed to all the conditions and were of sufficient interest to secure publication, the Post makes the remark (which many would-be novelists have found out for themselves) that "Story writing is not as easy as it seems."

THE RECLUSE.

Blood Will Tell.

According to the condition of it, if in bad order it shows itself in pimples, scallow complexion and various eruptions of the skin. If in good order it shows in the clear complexion, the glow of health, the good spirits. The latter condition you can produce by the use of Dr. Hale's Household Tonic, the great blood purifier and nerve tonic. 25c and 50c. a package at P. H. CARPENTER'S drug store.

LOUISVILLE TOBACCO MARKET.

FURNISHED BY GLOVER & DURRETT, LOUISVILLE TOBACCO WAREHOUSE.

Sales on our market for the week just closed amount to 2,654 hhds. with receipts for the same period of 1,824 hhds. Sales on our market since January 1st amount to 61,310 hhds. Sales of the crop of 1893 on our market to date amount to 62,731 hhds.

The market showed increased strength over that of last week on all grades. While there can be no question of the fact that a large per cent. of the plants which were already up were destroyed by the recent cold—there is nothing in the situation to curtail the proposed planting, if the weather in June is favorable for transplanting.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT

FRANKFORT, APRIL 21, 1894.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.

The License Ordinance Adopted in the Face of a Remonstrance From the Leading Merchants.

The City Council met in adjourned session Tuesday evening, with the Mayor and eight councilmen present.

The following remonstrance, signed by several of our leading business men, was presented and read, viz:

To the Gentlemen of the Common Council:

We understand that the license Committee of the council are to report a license system, classifying the different business, according to the stock of merchandise carried. If this is a fact, we desire now to notify you that we will not pay any more license than is charged the smallest dealer in our respective lines. The character of this class of cities guarantees us this, and, if necessary, we will appeal to the courts for our rights.

Very respectfully,
Weitzel & O'Donnell, Dry Goods.

Meagher & Marshall, Boots and Shoes.

Hudson, Humphries & Cassell, Tailoring.

Sam D. Johnson & Co., Dry Goods.

I. Davis, Dry Goods.

Henry Kingold, Dry Goods.

J. L. Rodman & Son, Dry Goods.

Crutcher & Starks.

R. K. McClure, & Son.

Mr. Pruett then made inquiry of the City Attorney as to their rights in the matter of graded licenses and was informed by that officer that the council had the right to govern such matters. Mr. McClure addressed the council on the subject and was answered by Councilman Pruett, who explained the intention of the license ordinance as reported by the committee.

The ordinance was then taken up by sections.

Sections 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5 were adopted, defining the duties of city officers.

Section 6, license for merchants carrying from $1 to $500 stock, $15 per annum; from $1,001 to $2,000, $35 per annum; from $2,001 to $3,500, $40 per annum; from $3,501 to $5,000, $50 per annum; from $5,000 to $7,000, $60 per annum; from $7,000 and over, $70 per annum.

Mr. Haly moved to reduce the license on the class from $1 to $500 to $10, and deduct the ad valorem tax from that. Which motion was lost. Section 6 was then adopted.

The whole ordinance was then passed and fixes the following licenses:

Billiard table, pool table, $35; ten pin, or bowling alley, $10; shooting gallery, $50; circus and menageries, $100; side shows, etc., $20; restaurant or eating house, $10; pawn-broker, $50; huckster, $20; banks, $125; fire insurance company, 10; agents, $10; life insurance company, $20; life insurance agents, $10, building and loan investment company, $4; guarantee co., $20; telephone company, $25; lawyers, physicians and dentists, $10; real estate and pension agents, $10; laundry and laundry agents, $20; peddlers, $75; auctioneers, $10; gas and electric light companies, $125; water companies, $100; street car, for each car, $1; meat dealers, $50; ice dealers $25; stock yards, $50; penalty for opening coffee houses on election days, fine $100.

This is the first passage of the ordinance which must be read and passed a second time at another meeting. This will be done next Tuesday evening.

The Complexion of a Chinese

Is not yellower than that of an unfortunate individual whose liver complaint has assumed the chronic form. The eyeballs of the sufferer assume a saffron hue there is dull pain in the region of the organ affected, the tongue is coated, breath sour, sick, headaches usually but not always occur, and there is sometimes dizziness on arising from a sitting posture. Constipation and dyspepsia are also attendants of this very common ailment. Its aggravating form is liable to breed abscesses of the liver, which are very dangerous. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which eradicates it, as well as the troubles connected with it and which it originates. In chills and fever, a complaint which always yields to the bitters, the liver is seriously involved. This fine alterative tonic removes costiveness and indigestion, rheumatic, nervous and kidney trouble and debility.

A PROMISING MEETING.

Large crowds have attended the meetings at the Christian Church this week, special seats being necessary on several nights. The interest has grown rapidly from the first. Rev. Mr. Spencer, of the Broadway Church, Louisville, has done the preaching and has greatly pleased the people. He is a quiet, earnest speaker, and so plain that a child can understand him. There have been a number of confessions. He preaches also to-night, to-morrow morning and night, and also every night next week.

FRANK HALLORAN DEAD.

The Popular Druggist Expired Yesterday Morning After a Brief Illness.

Mr. Frank M. Halloran suffered an attack of la grippe a year or so ago which left him with a rising in his ear that caused him much trouble at times. On Tuesday night he was taken worse and his uneasiness in bed awakened Mr. Foster Baird, who was sleeping in the room with him over the drug store of Holmes & Halloran, who asked if he could do anything for him. In reply Mr. Halloran said he was suffering great pain in his head and asked Mr. Baird to give him a dose of morphine. The latter wanted to go for a physician but Mr. Halloran said it was not necessary as he thought the morphine would relieve him, and Mr. Baird went down into the drug store, prepared a fourth of a grain dose of the drug and administered it, but it was almost immediately thrown up. Mr. Baird did what he could to relieve him and about 2 o'clock Mr. Halloran said he was feeling easier. Mr. Baird laid down and dropped off to sleep. Awakening again about 6 and finding Mr. Halloran unconscious, he sent for Dr. James and notified Mr. H.'s sister, Miss Katie. As soon as the Doctor saw him he pronounced the trouble inflammation of the brain. He and Dr. Coleman, who had been treating Mr. Halloran for the ear trouble, attended him closely to the end, but there was no hope from the start, as he never regained consciousness, passing away about 9:30 o'clock yesterday morning. During his illness his sister, Miss Katie, was constantly at his bedside and his brothers and sister were telegraphed for. Mr. Pat. Halloran came from Paducah and Miss Mary from school at Nazareth on Thursday and were with him in his last hours, but his brothers, Charley, of Memphis, Tenn., and Will, of Paducah, did not arrive until all was over.

Mr. Halloran had made numerous friends during his residence of eight or ten years in our city, and all that loving hands could do was done to soothe his dying hours. He will be sadly missed and his death is sincerely mourned. The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon at three o'clock from the Church of the Good Shepherd and the remains will be interred in the cemetery.

Removed to His New Stand.

Mr. A. Hartstein has removed his stock of dry goods and notions from the Main street store to the room on St. Clair street, in Swigert's block, formerly occupied by Mrs. Harris. The store-room has been handsomely fitted up, presents a neat and inviting appearance and is filled with a large and select stock of goods, which is being sold at the lowest prices. Being a live and progressive merchant, who keeps abreast of the times, he is determined that one wishing anything in his line shall always find it in stock and of the best quality. His old time customers will now find him nearer the point where they used to deal with him in the years gone by and will feel more at home when they call. Remember, he is now at Harris' old stand and has every thing the ladies want for a spring outfit. If you don't believe it stop and look at his handsomely decorated windows.

Moving the Exchange.

Mr. Adam Lake, of Lexington, Superintendent of the Telephone Company, is in the city and has a force of hands at work stretching wires preparatory to removing the telephone exchange from St. Clair street to the Collins building, corner of Main and Lewis streets.

ONE ENJOYS

Both the method and results when Syrup of Figs is taken; it is pleasant and refreshing to the taste, and acts gently yet promptly on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels, cleanses the system effectually, dispels colds, head-aches and fevers and cures habitual constipation. ## Deaths.

BREWER—Miss Sadie Brewer, daughter of Mr. James Brewer, died Sunday morning at the home of her parents, on South Shelby street, aged 16 years. Her funeral took place Monday afternoon.

SHARP—The following notice is clipped from the Lawrenceville, Georgia, Herald of April 17th:

Mr. S. T. Sharp, who, for a year or two, has been a citizen of Lawrenceville, died last Sunday morning at 1 o'clock. He has been in very feeble health all the winter, and his death would not have been a surprise at any time, although he was able to walk about the house. A remarkable fact connected with his death is that he told his friends several days before that he would die on Sunday and his prophecy was verified. He was buried in the new cemetery here yesterday by the Odd Fellows, of which order he was a member. He formerly lived at Frankfort, Ky., and only came to Georgia a few years since. He was the father-in-law of Capt. Comfort. We understand that he was 69 years old at the time of his death.

TATE—Mrs. Lucy Tate, wife of James W. Tate, late State Treasurer, died about 6 o'clock Monday evening, at her home on the corner of Second and Shelby streets, after a protracted illness aged 52 years. The deceased was born and raised near Millville, Woodford county, and was the daughter of the late W. W. Hawkins. In 1865 she was married to Mr. Tate and came to this city, where she has continued to reside, and where she has made many friends who will sincerely mourn her loss. During her last illness she had the loving care and attention of her only child, Mrs. Al. Martin, of Louisville. The deceased was a sister of Mr. James B. Hawkins, of the Farmers Bank, and Mr. John Ed. Hawkins, of Woodford county.

The funeral took place from the First Presbyterian Church Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock.

TRACY—Miss Kate Tracy died at the home of Mrs. Ann Tracy, in the Pea Ridge neighborhood, this county, on Sunday, after a lingering illness with consumption, aged 19 years.

Logs Plentiful.

The recent tide in the river, though not very high, brought out a large number of logs and the sawmill men of this city have secured a sufficient supply to enable them to run the greater portion of the summer. A number of rafts were also bought here by the lumber men of Madison, Indiana.

It will be an agreeable surprise to persons subject to attacks of bilious colic to learn that prompt relief may be had by taking Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. In many instances the attack may be prevented by taking this remedy as soon as the first symptoms of the disease appear. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by P. H. CARPENTER, South Side druggist.

THE NEW ST. CLAIR STREET BRIDGE.

The above cut represents the new bridge which now unites the north and south sides of the city, extending across the river from the foot of St. Clair street on the north to Bridge street on the South Side. The cut was made from a photograph taken before the bridge was entirely finished, showing a hole in the floor through which stone was being taken from one of the 13 piers to build the wall in the rear of the south abutment, with the engine used for hoisting the stone still in position. The bridge is the longest single span structure in the State—the length of span being 406 feet, roadway 24 feet, sidewalks 6 feet each—and cost the city and county $65,000, all of which has been paid except $5,000, which is retained until the King Bridge Company, of Cleveland, Ohio, which corporation built it, removes or has removed from the river the old piers, which, as shown in the cut, are still standing. The contract was let last July and the bridge was to have been completed by the 15th of November, but after much cussing and jawing, and the fact being developed that Frankfort had more bridge builders and kickers—and the ROUNDABOUT was all going towards the head of the class—than most any town in the country, it was finally thrown open for all kinds of travel on the 24th of March—nearly eight months after the first stone was laid in the north abutment.

The bridge is a handsome structure, one that we all feel proud of, and if we said anything about it, the company which was building it or the engineer in charge, during the time it was being erected, for which we are sorry, we are glad of it, and that's all. We have got a bridge—a good one—and that's what we were wanting, with a great big W. all the time, and because it was so long coming we kicked, and kicked hard. The south abutment is still standing, notwithstanding our direful predictions in regard to it, and may continue to stand as long as we live. If it falls after that time it is certain not to carry us or any of our children down with it, and we are satisfied.

Forks of Elkhorn.

Dr. T. T. Eaton, Editor of the Western Recorder, Louisville, delivered his famous lecture, "Our Poor Kin," at the Baptist Church in this place Tuesday evening. The occasion was one of rare enjoyment.

Mr. James Crockett, of Hawesville, a former Franklin county boy, paid us a visit the first of the week. It was the first time he had been here in twenty years.

Mrs. Myrtle G. Giddard, who has been sick during the past month, we are glad to announce is better.

Miss Lucy Stedman has been quite sick during the past week.

Mrs. Rebecca Crockett, of Bridgeport, and Mrs. Sallie Crockett, of Thistleton, were the guests of Mrs. Fannie Parrent the first of the week.

The weather has been delightful for a week past, causing farm work to progress rapidly.

Bro. Burden ministered to his congregation at Beech Ridge last Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. S. Black has about recovered from his recent illness.

The infant of Mr. Sylvester Whitman died at the home of its parents at Woodlake last Monday night.

Mr. W. T. Featherston has in course of construction a residence on the site of the house recently destroyed by fire. Mr. Henry Penn and family will occupy it as soon as it is completed.

BORN—On April 13, 1894, to Mr. B. T. Gaines and wife, a daughter—Sarah Elizabeth.

Russell Estes and sister, Miss Bertha, made a business trip to Midway last Thursday.

Marion Baker, son of Mr. John Baker, of Woodlake, has been very ill several days this week.

The Franklin County Teachers Association was held at the Court House in Frankfort, Saturday April 14, 1894. The meeting was called to order by Thos. Hunter. After prayer by Prof. T. M. Goodright, the subject of "how to select trustees" was opened for discussion by Thos. Hunter. The subject was thoroughly discussed by Prof. Z. O. King, McHenry Rhodes, John Goodright and Robbins, and Messrs. Shelton and Parrent. Prof. John Goodright made a few remarks on "Didactical marks," after which they adjourned to meet again, Saturday, May 12, 1894.

BORN—April 18, 1894, to Mr. George Turner and wife, of Woodlake, a daughter.

Miss Mattie Greenup, who has been quite sick for a week or more, has about recovered.

Mr. He'm and wife, who have resided in our town during the past two or three years, have removed to Missouri.

Our better halves say they could not keep house without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is used in more than half the homes in Leeds. Sims Bros., Leeds, Iowa. This shows the esteem in which that remedy is held where it has been sold for years and is well known. Mothers have learned there is nothing so good for colds, croup and whooping cough, that it cures these ailments quickly and permanently, and that it is pleasant and safe for children to take. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by P. H. CARPENTER, South Side druggist.
